Frank P. Langley Co., Inc. to Acquire Product Lines from HerLine Technologies

BUFFALO, NY (February 8, 2018)—Frank P. Langley, Co is happy to announce the acquisition of HerLine Technologies, Inc. product lines, including Spirax Sarco, Pick Heaters, and Super Radiator Coils effective Feb 6, 2018. Over the next few months, HerLine's owners, Barbara and Scott Herl, will assist with the transition until they fully retire later this summer. HerLine Technologies, Inc. has represented manufacturers of steam and fluid products, flow meters and heat transfer equipment to customers in Central & Western NY through the Southern Tier.

Frank P. Langley is a growing representative of complimentary products and is excited to work with Barbara and Scott. Barb and Scott Herl are enthusiastic about transitioning their product lines over to the steam and hydronic experts at Langley. Scott Crego, President of Frank P Langley Co, says "We have worked closely with both Barb and Scott as well as their manufacturers, such as Spirax Sarco, to maintain customer support and ensure an orderly transition. We are excited to offer a wider range of superior products and services to our customers."
